Conference Information

Join us in celebration of the Joining Voices – Speaking to the 7th Generation: Teachings to Keep Your Spirit Strong Native American Prevention Program Sharing Conference where you can network and learn about substance abuse prevention. The conference begins the evening of August 2 and has been designed to provide participants opportunities to:

- Learn about specific prevention programs and strategies that are being implemented with Native American youth audiences.
- Learn about evidence-based programs, principles, and practices.

- Talk with others who are interested in making prevention programs work effectively and efficiently.
- Strengthen a good path of life for youth.
- Strengthen connections among prevention programs throughout Native American Nations.
- Prepare youth to become good elders.
